2013 Walsh University Football Outlook

The Walsh University football team begins a new chapter in 2013. Last November, the only head coach in Walsh history, Jim Dennison, announced his retirement after 18 years at the helm. Dennison was replaced by Ted Karras, whose resume includes winning the NAIA National Championship last season. Then, In July, Walsh received word from the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) that the institution had been approved as a full-fledged Division II member for the 2013-14 academic year. Two years ago Walsh was invited to join the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC), perhaps the finest division two conference in the Nation. Now they are able to compete for a championship.

The Cavs will play a full ten-game GLIAC schedule, with non-league games against Edinboro University and Glenville State University. The "Karras Era" begins on Thursday, September 5, under the lights with Edinboro.

NEW ERA

Ted Karras (62-39, 9 yrs.) leads the Cavs into its first full season of the NCAA ll with confidence that they will perform at a high level, and with an offense that will be fun to watch. He brings an offensive philosophy that averaged 35.2 points per game and amassed over 430 yards per game last season. The passing attack averaged over 260 yards per game and threw for 30 touchdowns. In a day of the high-powered offense, Karras' defense allowed less than 300 yards a game and only 18.2 points. He inherits a strong, veteran defense and skill on offense. The transition will be exciting.

OFFENSE

Walsh returns skill on offense at key positions, but there will be new faces. Veteran wide receiver Anthony Schrock (6-3, 210, Jr., Wadsworth, OH/HS/University of Akron) will not be hard to locate on the field. The talented Schrock is a first-team preseason All-GLIAC selection. He led the team with 34 receptions last year. Look for that total to double. Schrock has great hands and is as good as any receiver in traffic. He should have an all-star year. In a package that could feature five receivers, it will take more than just Schrock to help the Cavs move the football. Darryl Gary (5-9, 157,Jr., Fort Myers, FL/South Fort Myers) will take some pressure off of Schrock. Gary caught 25 passes last year and is capable of being a game changer. When he catches the ball in the open field, his next stop is pay-dirt. Look for University of Michigan transfer Jerald Robinson (6-2, 230 Jr. Canton, OH/South) to make an impact, along with Ryan Christiansen (6-2, 195, Jr., Hartville, OH/Lake), Matt Matuska (6-0, 190, R-Fr. Akron, OH/ St. Vincent-St. Mary) and freshman Brody Tonn (6-0, 175, Massillon, OH/ Washington). Danny Reed (5-10, 170, Jr., Hartville, OH/Lake) was lost for the season due to an injury in camp.

One of the new faces will be at quarterback, as junior Paul Kempe (6-1, 190, Girard, OH/Ursuline) looks to be man at the throttle. Now to clarify, Kempe is not really a new face, but this is his first shot at running the Cavs attack after being used as a back-up wide receiver as a freshman, and bouncing between QB and wide-out last year. Kempe is a southpaw who had a good spring, and strong preseason camp. He is mobile and is getting more comfortable in the new offense every day. He is more than capable of leading the Cavs up and down the field.

Challenging Kempe and providing depth will be Matt Shelton (6-3, 175, Jr., Youngstown, OH/Ursuline) and Trent Toy (6-3, 205, Jr., Avon Lake, OH/HS). Both have been in the program, but have not seen game action.

With all the talk of the passing game, don't think the run game has been abandoned. The Cavs will run the football. Veterans Justin Keith (6 -2, 230, Sr., Canton, OH/South) and Steve Smith (5-10, 210, Sr., Norton, OH/HS) will help carry the load, and the ball. Both have had big games in the past, but both have been hampered by injuries. Smith averaged 5.7 yards per carry, while Keith rushed for 112 yards in Walsh's GLIAC win over Tiffin. Both are more than capable. Keith could also see action at tight end. Aaron Male (5-11, 192, R-Fr., Akron, OH/Ellet) redshirted last year and will be in the mix along with senior Reggie Garner (5-9, 187, Buffalo, NY/Kiski Prep). Look for Dominic Bell (5-11, 205, So., Port Washington, OH/Indian Valley) and freshman Riley Arvanitis (5-11, 266, Schererville, IN/Lake Central) to share time at fullback.

The Cavs offensive line will combine veterans and youth in 2013. Kevin Pask (6-3, 283, So., Cuyahoga Falls, OH/HS) is a good bet to start at left tackle. He gained plenty of GLIAC experience as a freshman, starting seven games and playing in all 11. Freshman Charles Snyder (6 -4, 287, Indianapolis, IN/Arsenal Technical) will provide depth at both tackle spots. Jacob Rigg (6-2, 260, So., Springboro, OH/HS) is at left guard. Rigg, like Pask, was thrown into the fire as a freshman and responded well. He started the first eight games, but then missed two games due to turf toe. He returned the start the final two games. Trent Solmen (6-3, 210, R-Fr., Columbiana, OH/HS) and Bradley Green (6-2, 278, So., Akron, OH/Buchtel) will supply depth. Zach Conlan (6-0, 295, Jr., Youngstown, OH/Ursuline/YSU) will start at center. Conlan suffered a concussion which forced him to miss four games, but he returned to play in the final five games. He did make five starts. Pete Wearsch (6-3, 264, So., Vienna, OH/Ursuline) should get the nod at right guard. Wearsch played in eight games, and started four, before suffering a knee sprain which sidelined him for the final two games. Nick Zawaski (6 -1, 265, Fr., Oak Lawn, IL/Brother Rice) will supply depth. Vinnie Cordova (6-5, 287, So., New Albany, OHHS/Eastern Illinois) will start at right tackle. Cordova played in six games last year and made two starts. Veteran Ben Buzzelli (6-5, 298, Sr., Wadsworth, OH/HS) is battling injuries, but will provide an immediate boost when he returns. The unit is not as deep as the staff would like, but they do have veterans with GLIAC experience. They just need to stay healthy.

DEFENSE

Karras inherits a defense that kept the Cavaliers competitive in their inaugural run through the GLIAC, finishing fourth in the league in scoring defense at 21.5 points per game. This contingent is heavy on experience, with as many as six seniors slated to be in the starting line-up.

The strength of the football team just may be the three up front. Mike Kohler (6-1, 230, Sr., Uniontown, OH/North Canton, OH), Jamaal McClain (6-1, 280, Sr., Canton, OH/McKinley) and Andrew Roy (6-4, 257, Sr., Tallmadge, OH/HS) are the heart of the defense at left end, nose and right end respectively. Kohler played in all 11 games last year and recorded five sacks. McClain, as rugged and tough as any lineman in the GLIAC, set the tone in the middle. Roy, a first-team preseason All-GLIAC selection, led the Cavs with six sacks and finished second with 10.5 tackles for a loss. These three will be expected to control the line of scrimmage, help control the running game and pressure the passer. Providing depth will be Jalon Avent (DE, 6-0, 254, R-Fr., Akron, OH/ Buchtel), Derrick Everett (N, 6-2, 280, So., Canton, OH/GlenOak) and Eric Price (6-1, 217, R-Fr., Galena, OH/Olentangy).

The Cavs are deep and experienced at outside linebacker. Look for returning veterans Cory Farcas (6-2, 214, Sr., Hubbard, OH/HS) and Chad Phillis (6-1, 224, So., Monaca, PA/Central Valley) to start. Farcas finished third in tackles (71) and had four sacks. He is equally effective against the run and pass. Phillis started nine games as a freshman and made an immediate impact leading the team with 11.5 tackles for a loss, and with 5.5 sacks. The Cavs are deep and experienced on the outside with Franklin Hill (6-1, 222, So., Alliance, OH/HS) and Marsean Ross (5 -11, 190, So., Columbus, OH/Walnut Ridge) pushing the starters and supplying top notch depth. Hill played in all 11 games as a true-freshman and Ross played in eight games.

The Cavs are just as experienced at inside linebacker with incumbents Nathan Filut (6-3, 225, Sr., Strongsville, OH/HS) and Cameron Trudell (5-10, 234, Jr., Columbus, OH/Walnut Ridge) returning. Filut played in all 11 games and recorded 55 tackles, with Trudell also seeing action in every game and finishing second on the team with 82 tackles. Chance Shalosky (6-1, 218, So., Dover, OH/HS) and Weldon Ayers (5-11, 194, R-Fr., Pickerington, OH/Central) supply depth.

The Cavs secondary is another area that has to be considered a strength. The corners will be manned by veterans Jamaris Brown (LCB, 5-9, 167, Jr., Fort Myers, Fl/Lehigh) and Pierre Raymond (RCB, 6-1, 200, Jr., Fort Myers, FL/East Lee County). Brown led the squad with seven pass break-ups and two interceptions. He started all 11 games. He is a legitimate shutdown corner. Raymond missed two games due to a concussion, but still had 38 tackles and three pass break-ups. Devonte Thomas (5-11, 180, So., Cameron, SC/Calhoun County/Youngstown State) and returnee C. J. Chatman (5-9, 165, So., Copley, OH/HS) provide depth and will push the starters. Returning veteran Kyle Vaclav (5-11, 190, Sr., Canfield, OH/HS) gets the nod at strong safety. Pat White (5-11, 186, Jr., Cambridge, OH/Pickerington Central/Michigan State) will patrol the free safety spot. White sat last year after the transfer. He will make an immediate impact. Tyler Bischof (5-10, 175, So., Akron, OH/St. Vincent-St. Mary) and Brian Moser (6-2, 195, R-Fr., Newton Falls, OH/HS) will supply depth. Bischof played in seven games as true freshman. The Cavs' secondary is another strength on Karras' first team.

SPECIAL TEAMS/KICKING GAME

Special teams must be a strength if the Cavs are going to succeed. Field position determines the outcome of every game. The Cavs hope to excel in this area. Look for Pat White to be on the kick and punt return teams. Jamaris Brown and C. J. Chatman are also expected to part of the kick return team. Personnel could change here at any time. Don't be surprised if Anthony Schrock finds his way onto to the punt return team. The reliable hands of Schrock are a welcomed addition.

The kicking game struggled last year, but is expected to bounce back in 2013. Tim Carter (6-0, 188, Jr., Columbus, OH/Bishop Watterson) handled both kicking and punting duties last year. Having a full year under his belt will only help Carter. Pushing Carter will be Michael Dudics (5-10, 199,Jr., Doylestown, OH/Chippewa) and freshman Zach Autry (5-11, 162, Indianapolis, IN/Decatur Central). Alex Knight (5-11, 216, R-Fr., Solon, OH/HS) suffered a broken leg and is lost for the year.

FINALLY

The Cavs should be fun to watch. With a wide open offense on the horizon and a solid defense returning, things could be interesting.

Walsh opens the season, at home, on Thursday night September 5 against first-time foe Edinboro University. The Cavs then host Northwood University in their GLIAC opener, before hitting the road for Michigan Tech. Ferris State and Ohio Dominican then come to Fawcett Stadium, as the Cavs play four of their first five games at home. After playing rival Malone University on October 12, Walsh plays four of the next five games on the road. The final home game is against NCAA II playoff foe Ashland University on October 19. Walsh then closes the season at Tiffin University, Lake Erie College, Glenville State University (first meeting) and the University of Findlay in the season finale on November 16.
