

7th Annual “All Politics Is Local”

CALL FOR PAPERS

On April 24, 2010 Walsh University will host a conference designed for undergraduate Political Science and International Relations majors. We invite all interested students to present* a paper on a domestic, international or philosophical topic in the discipline. There will also be sessions on “What to expect in graduate school” and “What to expect in law school.”

- Hear what your peers are thinking on the same issues
- Meet other politically-minded students
- Help build your resume or graduate school application credentials

Lodging will be provided (free of charge) for students who need it. Travel grants are also available.

Registration for a presenter is due by April 2, 2010. Papers are due April 16, 2010.

Proposals should include a provisional title, an abstract of your paper, your name and how to contact you – including an email address. This should be sent to Dr. Koop Berry, Dept. of Govt. and Foreign Affairs, Walsh University, 2020 East Maple St., North Canton, OH 44720 or to kberry@walsh.edu.

*A presentation is a brief (10-15 minute) synopsis of your paper, research and your primary findings.
