Sts. Sarbelius & Barbea

Feast: January 29

Facts
Feast Day: January 29

Two martyrs, brother and sister, who were put to death at Edessa during the persecutions of Emperor Trajan. Sarbelius, also called Sharbel, was a high priest at Edessa, in Mesopotamia. They were arrested for converting to the faith, and were tortured with red-hot irons prior to execution.

https://www.catholic.org/