St. Victorinus of Pettau

Feast: November 2

Facts

Feast Day: November 2

Bishop and martyr. Originally a Greek, he became bishop of Pettau, in Pannonia (later Styria, Austria). He was martyred during the persecutions of Emperor Diocletian (r. 284-305). Victorinus was also the author of several biblical commentaries, although he may have been an adherent of Millenarianism, a heresy of that time.
